WEEKLY REPUBLICAN-1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEADER-1888.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1901.

PRICE—ONE CENT.

Mrs. Louie January has returned from a visit to Chicago.

Mrs. F. W. Harrop is on a visit to friends at Cattsburg.

Mr. Robert L. Tudor of Buffalo, N. Y., was a visitor to Maysville Sunday.

Mrs. Willson January is home after spending the summer at Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Lee B. Gray will accompany her husband to the Buffalo Exposition, joining him in Cincinnati.

Miss Myrtle Wilson left yesterday afternoon for a prolonged stay with relatives in Covington and Cincinnati.

Mrs. C. B. Morehouse of Moline, Ill., is visiting the family of her brother, Dr. G. M. Williams, and other relatives.

Mr. Will G. Hester, wife and son arrived yesterday afternoon from a trip to New York City and other points in the East.

Hon. R. B. Lovel, wife and grandson returned last afternoon from a visit to Detroit, Duluth, Superior and other Northwestern cities.

Two Fresh Oysters at John O'Keefe's. Prof. Leary opened last night for a class in Book-keeping at 210 Court street.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Keith are happy over the birth of a fine son—John A. Keith.

There was a decided "frolic" in the city yesterday afternoon. It was at the Courthouse, where the four Democratic candidates were trying to talk themselves into one seat in the United States Senate. They had a cool reception, the house not being half filled.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

Tendered Rev. and Mrs. Howard T. Cree Last Night.

The farewell reception and the induction welcome held last night in the Church of the Disciples was in honor of the beloved Pastor, Rev. Howard T. Cree, and wife, who will leave for St. Louis this afternoon for their new charge, and of Rev. Mr. Moss, who assumed charge of the Church here.

The ladies of the congregation had transformed the interior of the main auditorium and the Sunday-school room into most beautiful apartments. Fragrant flowers, vines and palms were everywhere, brilliant lights shed their festive glare, and the Mayville Orchestra upon the platform discoursed sweet music.

These with a great throng went to make up a most happy event long to be remembered by those participating. Ice and cakes were served abundantly, and that true, cordial greeting and exuberant hospitality gave to the vast number not of the congregation, but who came to show appreciation, a pleasure which sweetens life and are the flower-beds of joy in the garden of social Christian community.

Vox Populi, Vox Dei.
They say there is no law that fits
The case of a subject, who Shot down the President, and that What punishment is due
Is not set forth in statute books;
And that a plain assassin
Is all the law defines his act.
Well, let his case default.
And turn him loose by lack of law.
His crime yet unredressed,
Release him; then stand by and watch
The people do the rest.

Dr. Browning is unusually happy because of the splendid aqueduct being built in front of his residence.

The alert police of Newport, Covington and elsewhere have arrested about a dozen "suspects" who killed J. H. Badger near the former place; but in every instance so far the arrested parties have been set free. The Police down there couldn't even catch a cold.

OPINION.

Mrs. K. S. Cady will have her regular Fall and Winter Opening Friday and Saturday, September 27th and 28th.

BOWLING MATCH.

Two Picked Clubs Will Contest For the Honors This Evening.

There'll be more fun than a keg of monkeys at the Bowling Alley tonight. These picked teams will engage in a tussle for the honors:

A TRIP TO CINCINNATI IS NOT NECESSARY!

To procure the kind of footwear suitable for a well-dressed woman. Some complain that proper lasts, mode, cut and the proper weight for street and house shoes are found wanting in the houses here. This may, in a measure, have been true in the past; it is not so at present. A casual inspection of the line carried by us will convince the most fastidious that they can procure, right at home, minus the cost of transportation to the city, the same shoes to be found there.

We think we are at least entitled to the consideration of those who purchase shoes, and ask that you inspect our stock before going out of town for what is to be had here at home.

Special Request.

In supporting advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper, or when buying goods from a merchant whose advertisement appears in this paper, our readers are respectfully requested to state that they saw the advertisement in THE PUBLIC LEADER. This will not hurt you anything, and it will be gratefully appreciated by both the advertiser and the Editor.

The Telephone Exchange is all right now and communication has resumed all along the line.

Mr. William Grierson of this city slipped up on his friends Sunday by slipping down to Ripley in company with Miss Madge Hlythe of near Aberdeen; and when they reached there they made a pilgrimage to a Parson, with the result that Miss Hlythe returned to Mayville as Mrs. Grierson.

Mr. Thomas Tudor of Mt. Olivet was taken ill while in the city yesterday and it was feared for a time that he could not get home. But, despite his age of nearly 62, he insisted that he was "all right now" and determined to make the start. Mr. Tudor was born of English parents in South Africa—then a wilderness, now a plain of perennial beauty.

APPROACHING NUPTIALS.

Marriage of Miss Katharine Albert Will Occur October 15th.

The marriage of Miss Katharine Albert to Colonel Charles Burne Kefauver of Charleston, W. Va., will take place Tuesday, October 15th, at 4:30 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cox on East Third street.

Miss Albert is a very beautiful girl, and during her social reign has been one among the very popular girls composing the belles of Mayville.

Colonel Kefauver is a prominent politician of our sister state, and is a genial, fine fellow, who not only has succeeded in a business way but has the faculty of making and holding friends which insures his eminence in the future.

The wedding will be devoid of ostentation—simple, quiet and with no attendants.

Rev. Augustine J. Smith, Rector of the bride's Church, will read the Episcopal marriage rite.

After congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Kefauver will leave via the C. and O. for a trip East.

IF SOME OF YOUR FRIENDS

Are going to get married you could not make a more appropriate gift than a piece of fine Cut Glass. Call and look over the many beautiful pieces we have just opened.

BALLENGER

Jeweler and Optician.

Mr. M. H. Easton of this city on Monday, September 15, viewed the remains of President McKinley at Buffalo and attended the funeral at Canton on Thursday last.

The Rev. F. W. Harrop left at 10 o'clock this morning for Ashland, to attend the Conference of the M. E. Church. It is the earnest hope, not only of the members of his congregation, but of our entire citizenship, that he be returned to his charge here.

Mr. Charles Cooper a few days ago accidentally knocked the skin off his right hand while hoisting a window. It began paining him and swelling, until today he is in bed with a most dreadfully swollen hand and arm. Great fear is entertained of blood poison, but the physicians hope to avert this and soon restore Mr. Cooper.

ORDERS CONFERRED.

Maysville Commandery Has Three Accessions Last Evening.

Maysville Commandery No. 10 is fast resuming her old place at the "head and front" of Templarism in Kentucky.

New life and renewed energy are manifest, and there is every promise of active work during the coming winter months.

Yesterday three postulants—Companions Charles C. Wilson and David A. Yoder of Greensburg and the Rev. J. L. Sturgell of Harmanstown—were initiated with the "Red Cross" and the "Order of the Temple," the work being most impressively conferred by Sir Knight F. W. Harrop in the chief chair, assisted by Sirs L. C. Blatterman, F. G. Smoot, J. H. Sallee, J. D. Dye, L. M. McCarthy and others.

At the conclusion of the beautiful ceremonies, all present sat down to an elegant luncheon, the handiwork of Captain General L. M. McCarthy.

Toasts were responded to by Sirs C. C. Wilson, David A. Yoder, F. W. Harrop, J. D. Dye and Thomas A. Davis, and in a most impressive manner a toast was drunk, standing in and silence, to the memory of Father William McKinley, late President of the United States.

Among those present were Sirs E. A. Robinson, F. G. C. of Kentucky; T. T. Heaton and M. C. Ellis, Aberdeen; John Marshall, W. W. Claut, W. H. Howard, Mason county; Clarence Kaiper, Cincinnati Commandery No. 3, Cincinnati; J. W. Kigin, J. C. Breckinridge, Cincinnati; Klemtgauburg.

CHARLES C. MOORE, Editor of The Bluesgrass Blade, uses the following

Moore's language in referring to the assassination of President McKinley:

"Damn all Anarchists! Squelch all of their papers, such as 'Free Society' and 'Discontent.' Swipe out the whole infernal, cowardly, treacherous gang of assassins and arrest, as a suspect, any man or woman who calls himself or herself an Anarchist."

Is it any wonder that Chicagoans love Chicago, are proud of Chicago and are at times boastful of Chicago?

There is no city in the world that can outdo it in the matter of rising grandly to the requirements of an emergency.

—Chicago Item Occur.

Well, then, let her rise "grandly

to the requirements of an emergency"

by riding herself of the needs of Anarchists that exist within her borders.

Let them be extirpated—root and branch, "lock, stock and barrel,"— and let there be no mauling and wailing and wailing and gnashing of teeth over their miserable carcasses, as is done annually over the rotting remains of the Haymarket murderers.

Mrs. BREWSTER, the widow of the

Anarchist BREWSTER who killed King

HUMBERT of Italy, says that she will defy the authorities who have required her to remove from Cliffside Park, N.

J., and that she will continue to reside in her present home. In an interview she said:

"If President McKINLEY were alive

today he would repudiate this persecution of a lone woman and her children. My husband suffered enough for his crime. Why should I be treated as an outcast, hounded where-ever I go and my children made to suffer? I am not an Anarchist. I do not advocate Anarchism and do not believe in it."

Certainly. "If President McKIN-LEY were alive" there would be no

"persecution" of this "lone woman," and but for the venomous Anarchists in this country President McKINLEY would be alive. Mrs. BREWSTER's denial that she's an Anarchist doesn't guarantee that she's not one. She says that she's not. More over—and the Devil take the last one of 'em!

THE assassination of a President does not stop the Government. In an hour another takes his place and the machine moves along without the slightest interruption.

If the cartoonist must continue his work, why not let him try his hand on WILLIAM R. HEARST of the New York Journal, and his fellow-anarchists. Some of their own medicine might do them good.

At the Memorial Services to the late President McKINLEY, held in Owensboro, the Hon. WILLIAM T. ELLIS, ex-Congressman, was the chief speaker. His address was a masterly one, and among other things he told some forcible truths. These will bear repeating—

"In politics I did not agree with him; in everything else my only regret was and is that I could not measure up to the full standard which marked him, not merely as a man of nature's nobility, but as a truly great man."

"It is a conspicuous fault of our people, and it appears to be a sort of factor which attaches almost universally to men and women in every rank and station of life, to see but little good in the living and nothing but virtue in the dead."

"This ought not to be. It would have been most gratifying to President McKINLEY if his countrymen, laying down for the moment all partisan prejudices and passions, had assembled in their respective localities, while he was among them in the flesh, and expressed their confidence in his integrity and his loyalty to his country. Such a tribute would have strengthened his arm and encouraged him in the faithful discharge of his duty. His entire confidence in the people throughout his whole Administration rested upon it."

"If, when Dewey's guns were thundering in Manila Bay, or when Sherry was destroying the Spanish fleet off the coast of Santiago, or when our heroic young men were charging up San Juan to plant the Stars and Stripes on a Spanish fort, the whole people of the United States had gathered as they gathered this day and expressed their entire confidence in the President of the United States and their purpose to aid and support him in the just cause which the armies of our country were then fighting, I have no doubt that the result would have been different."

THE WAY HE NOTICED IT.

New York City. "The simple, kindly life had not gone unnoticed," New York Journal.

No, indeed, and this was the way you noticed it:

"And McKINLEY—bar one girly Princeton person, who came to be no more, no less, than a living crime in the eyes of the people, the most despised and hated creature in the hemisphere. His name is hated; his figure is cursed in every eye."

Why abandon your disciples of the slums? Do you think you can make others of the household, of the street? Do you think any one will forget? Nay; neither society into whose ranks you would now vainly sink, nor its enemies, with whom you have consorted, from whom you now vainly shrink. You stand alone, beyond, below them. They are the fit object for the assassin's contempt—the accomplice, instigator and deceiver.

INSULTING BOARD OF TRADE.

Louisville Courier. "We do not now just recall that the Board of Trade ever had a meeting for the purpose of passing resolutions denouncing the assassination of (Goebel)," is the comment on the gathering of the representative citizens of Louisville last Wednesday on "Change" and if William McKINLEY had slain his man in his fifth year, blood and had died while attempting to steal an office to which another had been elected, a Nation of honest people would not have honored his memory as they do.

And speaking of points of distinction in the two cases, it may be further remarked that if nobody had seen the shot fired, and if the wound in McKINLEY's back had been small and the wound in front had been large and ragged, the Republicans would not have tried to make it part of their National platform that the history of gunshot wounds had been raised; that he was shot from in front by a democrat and that William J. Hyatt should be hung for it, and the Democratic party denounced for it.

In 1971 the bread-eaters of the world numbered 316,000,000. In 1981 the number rose to 416,000,000; in 1991 to 472,000,000; and at the present time they number 516,000,000.

As a Food For the Skin.

To Make It Smooth, Healthy and Beautiful, Dr. Chase's Ointment is Hailed by Thousands of Fair Women.

Every woman, no matter how beautiful her skin, finds need at times of some preparation to overcome the redness and roughness, and to cure pimples, blackheads and skin irritations.

Powder may cover up the disfiguring eruptions, but can never cure them, and are positively injurious because they clog up the pores of the skin.

Dr. Chase's Ointment is a food for the skin. It is readily absorbed, and thoroughly cures each and every skin disease, making the skin smooth, soft and clear.

No woman's toilet is complete without Dr. Chase's Ointment, for besides being the most perfect skin beautifier obtainable it can be used in a score of different ways. It absolutely cures eczema, salt rheum and itching to which women are especially subject. The ointment does not cause pain when applied, but soothes the sore or inflamed surface. It immediately stops itching of the skin when applied.

When the feet are sore and chafed with walking an application of Dr. Chase's Ointment takes out the smarting and allays the inflammation in a surprisingly short time. Then for burns, scalds and every sort of chafing, irritation or eruption of the skin Dr. Chase's Ointment affords a safe and certain cure. It has come to be indispensable in scores of thousands of homes in the United States. It does not cause pain when applied, so contents a box, at all dealers, or Dr. A. W. ### AN ARMED ATTACK.

A Call For Troops to Preserve Peace at Madisonville Has Been Sent to Gov. Beckham.

Madisonville, Ky., Sept. 24.—The governor has been appealed to for troops to hold in check the turbulent coal mine strikers. As the result of an attack by a squad of strikers Monday Judge J. Numa has wired Gov. Beckham as follows:

"It is my opinion that troops are needed here at once to preserve the peace."

At an early hour Monday morning the strikers opened fire on Reinecke mine from a grove 500 yards off and gradually came nearer. One squad of 25 or 30 strikers stood within 50 yards of the main road and peppered the street, making it too warm for the guard who was patrolling the front of a row of miners' houses that he beat a hasty retreat. The house nearest the strikers was riddled with bullets. The resistance Monday morning by the strikers was the most determined yet offered. Judge Numa was called to his office, the situation explained to him, and he immediately sent the above telegram.

The sheriff in summoning every able-bodied man in the county. They are being armed and will be placed at the mines to protect the property. One hundred armed men have just arrived in a special train from Earlington and will be on duty for duty. No word has been received from the governor in regard to sending the militia.

The Grand Jury indicted John McLaughlin and William Welsh at Lexington, Ky.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 24.—The grand jury Monday indicted John McLaughlin and William Welsh on the charge of running a poolroom. They were indicted in a poolroom and gambled with cards, and it was while they were acting under a peace agreement that McLaughlin claimed he gave Welsh $500 a month to be paid to city officials for protection.

RUNNING A POOLROOM.

The grand jury has also been in vestigating these charges, and it is rumored on the streets Monday that the grand jury has decided to indict, and that the indictments would be reported to the circuit court Tuesday.

Stashed a Boy.

The Vessel Passed Across the Texas' Bow at a Distance of 100 or 150 Yards.

The Latter Ship BROUGHT TO A STOP

Commander Hiler Expressed an Opinion That Three Miles Had Been Lost During This Maneuver.

Commander Bates Admitted the Official Steam Log Contains No Record of the Signal to Reverse the Engines.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The part played by the battleship Texas in the naval battle of Santiago July 1, 1898, in which the Spanish fleet under Admiral Cervera was sunk, was the basis of the greater part of Monday's proceedings in the navy court of inquiry. Of the four witnesses examined during the day, three had been officers on board the Texas during the battle and two of them were new witnesses. They were Commander George C. Hiler, who was navigator of the Texas and Commander James B. Hiler, who was the chief engineer on that battleship. Commander Hiler, executive officer of the ship since the death of Capt. Phillips, was recalled. The fourth witness was Commander Setao Schroeder, executive officer on the Massachusetts during the battle.

The testimony several times during the day was somewhat exciting, and it was especially so when Commander Hiler described the position of the Texas had taken in it. He said when the Brooklyn made its loop at the beginning of the battle it had been at a distance of 100 or 150 yards, and that at the command of Capt. Phillips the Texas had been brought to a dead stop.

The Chart Incriminate.

Engineer Bates testified that the starboard engines had been stopped and said he thought this also had happened to the port engines. Commander Hiler expressed the opinion that three miles had been lost by this maneuver and the fact that the starboard engines had been stopped was a serious matter.

On cross-examination Commander Hiler admitted having taken in the preparation of the official navy despatches the fact that the Texas had at different times of the ships which participated in the battle. He said according to this chart the two ships were at a distance of 100 or 150 yards from each other. But he contended, the chart was inaccurate, and he said he had only consented to it as a matter of convenience.

Admiral Cervera's fleet, he admitted that the official steam log of the Texas contained no record of the signal to reverse the engines. Commander Hiler said he would have been sufficient for a blockade of from 10 to 15 miles.

The day closed with another animated controversy between counsel as to the policy of bringing Adm. Sampson's name into the trial.

RR. ADM. SAMPSON RELIEVED

Mr. Adm. Mortimer L. Johnson Will Assume Command of the Boston Navy Yard on October 1.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Mr. Adm. Sampson has requested the navy department to relieve him of his present duty as commander of Boston navy yard, and to assign him to the command of the bad condition of his health. Secretary Long has granted the request.

Mr. Adm. Mortimer L. Johnson, commander of the Port Royal naval station, will assume command of the Boston yard on October 1.

F. D. Coburn, of Kansas City, Kan., May Succeed Mr. Wilson as Secretary of Agriculture.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 24.—F. D. Coburn, of Kansas City, Kan., secretary of the Kansas state board of agriculture, who was mentioned a few days ago as secretary of agriculture under the late President McKinley, is again brought to the front as a possible successor of Secretary Wilson in President Roosevelt's cabinet. It is said that if President Roosevelt should make any changes in the cabinet that should call for a new secretary of agriculture, Kansas will present Mr. Coburn for the place.

A McKinley Stamp.

Washington, Sept. 24.—A special issue of stamps commemorative of the life of President McKinley is under contemplation at the post office department. Consideration of the subject, however, has not progressed beyond the preliminary stage, and no definite action may be taken.

KENNARD.

Mr. Alonso White was visiting friends in Maysville Sunday.

Mrs. Baker of Kansas was last week a guest of Mr. William White.

Mr. Henry Mastin of Millersburg was a guest of Mrs. Anniston Hill Thursday. Salem School is doing nicely under the management of Prof. Walter Dunken. J. S. Woodward of Nardie was on Sunday visiting his mother, Mrs. Matilda Woodward.

Mr. Leslie Fisher is very low with consumption at the home of his uncle, Mr. R. B. Pimpelly.

Mrs. Emmie Mastin and Miss Lulu Hill were guests of Mr. Arthur Henson of Shannon Sunday.

There is a great scarcity of farm hands. Exorbitant prices paid to secure them to work in the tobacco, and frost is expected soon.

Blanche May, the eleven days old baby of Mr. Arthur and Mrs. Mary L. Henson, died Tuesday evening at her home near Shannon and was buried here Wednesday in the Salem cemetery.

We, the bereaved family, desire to thank our friends for their kindness during the illness and death of our son and brother, Powell Kemper. Also, wish to thank the ladies for their singing and the gentlemen for their services as pallbearers. For these favors, together with the beautiful floral offerings, we again ask you to accept our deepest gratitude.

MR. AND MRS. P. B. OWENS AND DAUGHTERS.

EDWARD F. POWELL.

Died in Cincinnati Was a Former Resident of This City.

Edward F. Powell, a native and former resident of this city, died at the Cincinnati Hospital Sunday, where he had been taken just a week previously for the seventh time.

Mr. Powell formerly kept a confectionery store on West Second street, where he resided with his wife and one child.

Some ten years ago he contracted the "morphine habit," and although he was sent to a Sanatorium, and every other effort tried to break off the use of the deadly drug, the relief was only temporary, and he relapsed into the weakness.

Meanwhile his wife died; and about eight years ago he went to Cincinnati.

He secured several situations, but on account of his habit he soon lost them, until finally he became an outcast—and a wreck.

Poor fellow! May the Angels be kinder to him than he was to himself.

W. F. THOMAS, M. W.
R. H. WALLACE, Recorder.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, permitted it to increase. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.
